

ACCS - Board of Directors

Dr Miro Ljubicic
Chairperson

Miro has a long and successful career in education as an Academic. He has worked for government and tertiary education providers both here and overseas. Miro has a Masters in IT and a PhD in Business. He joined ACCS board in 2013 and draws inspiration from helping people in reaching their potential in their career development

Steve Milicevic
Deputy Chairperson

Steven is a highly experienced business lawyer and public speaker. His experience working as Company Secretary and General Counsel for an ASX listed group of companies motivated him to start his own law firm, Milicevic Lawyers, focused on providing legal advice to individuals and small to medium sized companies. He is regularly invited to speak on legal topics at various public events.

Slavko Bilos
Director

Slavko migrated to Australia when he was 22 years old and has always been involved in community groups and services including Australian Croatian Association, Melbourne Knights Football Club, Croatian Credit Union and Hajduk Soccer Club. Slavko worked in the finance sector for more than 40 years, and has received an industry awards for his successful management career.

George Tsironis
Director

Upon completion of his BA with majors in Psychology and Statistics, his psychology training was at the Australian Council for Education Research (ACER). His training involved a nationwide study titled "Integrating Disabled Children into Mainstream Schooling". His name is in print with the studies conducted by ACER at the time.

Meredith Adam

Director

Meredith has extensive business experience primarily in the International Trade, Logistics and Shipping arena where her skills dealing with customers, staff, Government agencies and various industry committees provided a solid platform of skills. Previously Meredith served on the Board of IPC (previously ISIS Primary Care).

Niko Opacak

Director

Niko is a political and policy specialist with a deep understanding of Government and its operations.

His first role in politics was as an adviser to the former Federal Leader of the Opposition, the Hon. Bill Shorten MP. Following this, he spent a number of years providing strategic, political and communications consulting services to some of Australia's largest companies.

He currently holds an in-house role as General Manager, Government Relations.

Niko holds a Bachelor of Social Science, a Bachelor of Laws, a Graduate Diploma of Legal Practice, and was admitted to practice as an Australian lawyer in 2016.

Dr Blazan Dujmic

Director

With qualifications as a Musculoskeletal Therapist and Doctor of Physiotherapy. Blazan offers diverse experience within clinical and community-based settings. Currently his work revolves around the disability sector focusing on individuals with learning/cognitive delays and musculoskeletal dysfunction. Each day he strives for ways to maximise patient independence to allow individuals to achieve their functional goals.

Franci Buljat

CEO and Company Secretary

Franci is a Chief Executive Officer of Australian Croatian Community Services, and has been in this role since July 2010. Franci holds an overseas degree Bachelor of Languages Diploma of Teaching and an Australian (NAATI) qualification as an Interpreter and Translator and has had an extensive experience in teaching and media.